

WHEN

Noon to 1:30
Tuesdays

WHERE

Legal Aid at Work
180 Montgomery St., 6th Floor
San Francisco (except July 25*)

MCLE Credit

Each lecture is approved for 1.5 hours of
California MCLE credit.

▶ June 13

Resisting Together: Strength in Diversity

Local organizations are leading the effort to shore up civil rights and defend marginalized communities in the era of Trump. Join us to explore ways diverse communities are taking action and harnessing broader coalitions and alliances.

Cat Brooks, Co-founder, Anti Police-Terror Project (APTP), and interim director, National Lawyers Guild's Bay Area chapter

Matt Nelson, Exec. Director, Presente.org

Elica Vafaie, Program Manager, National Security and Civil Rights, Asian Law Caucus

▶ June 20

Defending Disability
Rights in the Trump Era

People with disabilities and their families face threats to their health, education and economic security from the Trump Administration and the current Congress. Our panel will explore these dangers and outline a roadmap for fighting back.

Arlene Mayerson, Directing Attorney, Disability Rights Education and Defense Fund

Cheryl Theis, Education Advocate, Disability Rights Education and Defense Fund

▶ June 27

Strategies for Resistance
by State and Local Governments

President Trump's executive orders have wreaked havoc around the globe and tested the Constitution. Lawyers on the front lines challenging Trump's Muslim and refugee ban and his threat to de-fund "sanctuary cities" discuss their experiences.

Marsha Chien, Assistant Attorney General, Civil Rights Unit, Washington State Attorney General's Office

Mollie Lee, Deputy City Attorney, San Francisco

▶ July 18

The Future of Work:
Economic Security Outside
of Traditional Employment

Automation is increasing. The gig economy is growing. Families are supporting themselves in new ways, and their access to traditional safety nets is changing. Join us to discuss strategies to promote economic stability in this new reality.

Elena Chávez Quezada (moderator), Senior Program Officer for Economic Security, Walter and Elise Haas Fund

Phaedra Ellis-Lamkins, Head of Care, Honor, a home care company

Natalie Foster, Fellow for the Future of Work Initiative, Aspen Institute

Sean Kline, Director, San Francisco Office of Financial Empowerment

▶ July 25

Assessing the U.S. Supreme Court's
2016-2017 Term

Amid turmoil surrounding the confirmation of Justice Neil Gorsuch, the Court has tackled such pressing issues as juror bias, special education, and the Fourth Amendment's extraterritorial application. Join us for a review by a renowned constitutional scholar.

Erwin Chemerinsky, Incoming Dean of Berkeley Law; Founding Dean of UC Irvine School of Law

Please RSVP by July 18 so we can add you to the guest list:
lectures@legalaidatwork.org

*Venue: Coblenz, Patch, Duffy & Bass, 1 Montgomery St., Ste 3000, San Francisco (enter via 120 Kearny St.)

▶ August 1

From the Streets to the Courts: Fighting for LGBT Rights

U.S. courts have long grappled with whether anti-discrimination laws protect the LGBT community. Grassroots movements for LGBT rights have existed longer still. Join us to discuss innovative legal and grassroots strategies to defend and promote LGBT rights.

Amy Whelan, Senior Staff Attorney, National Center for Lesbian Rights

Felicia Medina, Partner, Medina Orthwein LLP

Jessy D'Santos, Program Director, El/La Para TransLatinas

WWW.LEGAL AID AT WORK.ORG
SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA 94104
180 MONTGOMERY STREET, SUITE 600

LEGAL AID AT WORK | 2017 ELIZABETH J. CABRASER SUMMER LECTURE SERIES

- JUNE 13 Resisting Together: Strength in Diversity
- JUNE 20 Defending Disability Rights in the Trump Era
- JUNE 27 Strategies for Resistance by State and Local Governments
- JULY 18 The Future of Work: Economic Security Outside of Traditional Employment
- JULY 25 Assessing the U.S. Supreme Court's 2016-2017 Term—Erwin Chemerinsky
- AUGUST 1 From the Streets to the Courts: Fighting for LGBT Rights

Legal Aid at Work delivers on the promise of justice for low-income people.

The Elizabeth J. Cabraser Summer Lecture Series strives to present a spectrum of topics and views. Opinions expressed by the speakers do not necessarily reflect those of Legal Aid at Work's board, staff, or underwriters.

Interpretive services available with 72 hours' notice.

All lectures start at noon. MCLE credit available.

July 25 lecture meets at Coblenz, Patch, Duffy & Bass, 1 Montgomery Street, Suite 3000, San Francisco, CA 94104 (please RSVP by July 18 to lectures@legalaidatwork.org).

All other lectures meet at our offices, 180 Montgomery Street, Suite 600, San Francisco.

The talks will be live-streamed at www.facebook.com/LegalAidatWork/.