Form 990, Part III, Line 1 - Organization Mission

LAAW's mission is to advance justice and economic opportunity for poor and low-income people and their families at work, in school, and in the community. We fight to ensure that all workers are afforded equal and fair treatment pursuant to local, state, and federal laws.

Our staff and Board believe that work and workplace conditions are critical social determinants of health and that employment is essential to self-sufficiency, affords dignity, and facilitates civic engagement.

LAAW acts on these principles through a variety of strategies, including:

• conducting targeted community outreach and education,

• building the capacity of grassroots organizations, medical service providers, and community-based partner organizations around California to understand and advocate for their rights on the job and beyond.

• providing brief legal advice and counsel to low-wage workers through in-person legal clinics and legal telephone helplines

• engaging in strategic litigation to both improve the law for workers and to enforce key workplace protections

LAAW serves diverse clients, many of whom experience unlawful treatment because of their race, ethnicity, national origin, language preference/proficiency, gender, pregnancy, caregiving responsibilities, sexual orientation, disability, citizenship status, abuse or trauma survivor status, or military service. A significant number of LAAW's clients are monolingual Spanish, Mandarin, or Cantonese speakers or have limited-English proficiency. We have bilingual staff onsite to assist them.

Civil rights violations that low-income clients face include:

• Discrimination, harassment, violence, and/or retaliation;

• Wage theft;

Legal Aid at Work

Form 990, Part III, Line 1 - Organization Mission

- Denial of family medical leaves;
- Denial of disability accommodations;
- Denial of equal athletic and educational opportunities to girls in low-income neighborhoods; and

• Failure to provide and maintain facilities in schools or public spaces that are compliant with the Americans with Disabilities Act

- Denial of Unemployment or State Disability Insurance.
- Human trafficking.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - Program Service Accomplishments

We successfully championed legislation (SB 1383) which gives six million more Californians who work for small and mid-sized employers the right to take family medical leave without fear of being fired. The newly eligible workers are disproportionately low-wage workers and workers of color.

We and co-counsel at the Impact Fund obtained a $150,000 settlement for a transgender police officer in San Francisco who was repeatedly misgendered and harassed on the job. The settlement also provides for significant reforms to better protect all nonbinary and transgender workers at SFPD.

Our appellate advocacy helped convince the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit to protect undocumented workers from exploitation and abuse. The Court ruled that undocumented workers are not categorically excluded from key employment law protections simply because of their immigration status.

We represented a Black, Muslim construction worker who had been called the N-word and been repeatedly mocked on the job because of his religion fight back against egregious workplace harassment. We helped this worker reach a significant settlement, which included not only financial compensation for himself, but also changes to the way the employer operated in order to help others in the workplace as well.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - Program Service Accomplishments

We successfully represented a Latinx warehouse worker who had been fired after asking for a modified work schedule so he could receive life-saving dialysis treatment. We helped the client get his job back and all of the pay he had been wrongfully denied when the employer prohibited him from working.

Along with 100+ organizations across California who make up the Safety Net for All Coalition, we successfully advocated for the first-in-the Nation $75M Disaster Relief Assistance for Immigrants Program to help undocumented workers affected by COVID-19 pandemic. The Fund provided life-line payments of up to $500 per person or $1,000 per household for those who experienced hardship as a result of the pandemic.

Continuing our decades-long commitment to meeting workers where they are,we launched our 13th and 14th Workers' Rights Clinic sites in the rapidly changing communities of Antioch (in East Contra Costa County) and Ontario (in San Bernardino County). Each year, our statewide network of clinics and helplines serves over 3,000 vulnerable low-wage workers throughout California.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 1a - Explanation of Delegated Broad Authority to Committee

By resolution on 5/26/11 the Board of Directors ratified and confirmed that it had in the past and continued to delegate authority to the Executive Committee to act on its behalf in all matters except those specified in that resolution. At year-end 2020 the Executive Committee had 17 members.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 2 - Business or Family Relationship of Officers, Directors, Etc.

Robert M Dell and Michael B Dell were both serving board members during the year and have a family relationship.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b - Form 990 Review Process

990 draft copy presented and communicated to Audit Committee. Audit Committee approves form 990 after their review and a copy of form 990 made available to the Board after it's filed with IRS.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Explanation of Monitoring and Enforcement of Conflicts

Each board member must sign and acknowledge LAAW's conflict of interest policy when joining the Board of Directors. These signed forms are kept on file.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15a - Compensation Review & Approval Process - CEO & Top Management

Each year the Board of Directors review and approve ED's compensation in December for the following year.
